...IN PARTNERSHIP WITH GOD IN FORMING A JUST AND GENERATIVE WORLD FOR ALL WELCOME!

It is with great excitement and gratitude that I welcome you to explore Gammon Seminary 3.0. As Gammon's Chief Academic Officer, I am honored to join in this transformative season under the leadership of President Candace M. Lewis and the support of our Board of Trustees. This opportunity allows me to combine over 30 years of experience as a professor, writer, administrator, pastor, and clergywoman into a singular focus: fostering academic excellence and spiritual growth at Gammon Seminary.

One of my favorite sayings is, "When the student is ready, the teacher will come." At Gammon, we believe this moment of readiness is sacred. Whether you are considering a seminary degree, taking a few classes, or wishing to know more about justice centered God-talk, we invite you to "Grow with Gammon." Here, talented and justice-minded faculty engage with justice-driven, spiritually curious students to inspire transformation.

Gammon Seminary's mission to prepare leaders who partner with God in creating a just and generative world has never been more crucial. Our faculty immerse students in theological and spiritual reflection while equipping them with tools to evaluate their diverse expressions through the ages. Together, we challenge oppression, deepen faith, and co-create a vision of God's justice.

I believe that when justice-minded, theologically grounded faculty meet justice-driven, spiritually curious students in the classroom, sacred transformation unfolds. This is the heart of what we do at Gammon—and it is a journey we invite you to join.

Let's grow together. Welcome to Gammon Seminary 3.0!

Dr. Renita J. Weems
Chief Academic Officer
